Dear Lottie:

Although I fully appreciate your reasons, I am sorry to hear that you feel you must sever your connection with the Public Service Aid Society. Your resignation as Director and Trustee is being formally accepted with regret by the Society, but I want to add a personal word of thanks for all you have done to develop this very worthwhile service for our people. Perhaps at some future date we will be lucky enough to be able to call on you again for more of your good advice and counsel.

Please accept my best wishes for every success in your new venture.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
